DESCRIPTION

Discover an exceptional opportunity in a stunning natural setting with this development lot in Curarrehue, Cautín, in the beautiful Araucanía Region of Chile. With a total area of 25.86 hectares, this property is the perfect place to bring your dreams or investment project to life, thanks to its proximity to Las Termas de Panqui and the serenity and beauty offered by this privileged location.

Comprising 70% native forest, this property features pure water from a stream that runs through the land. Additionally, there is power availability.

Located in Panqui, this property has unique characteristics that make it stand out. Imagine waking up every day in a peaceful setting, with the whisper of the wind as a backdrop and the water nearby as a silent witness. The majestic mountains add a mystical touch to the landscape, while the proximity to a beautiful tourist area makes this property a gem for both personal and commercial use.

The plot's orientation allows you to make the most of the natural views from every angle: Northeast, Northwest, East, West, Southeast, and Southwest offer breathtaking panoramic views, making every corner an opportunity to connect with the surroundings and the spirit of this magical land.

Whether you're looking for a private retreat or developing a tourism project, this property—just 20 minutes from Curarrehue and 55 minutes from Pucón—offers the perfect space and setting to bring your ideas to life. Don't miss the chance to visit and fall in love with the potential and beauty of this incomparable place.

There is also an opportunity to purchase a 28-hectare lot in the same area, consisting of forested areas and hilly terrain suitable for grazing and/or farming, for 15,965 UF.
Both lots total 25,000 UF
