DESCRIPTION

Discover an incredible opportunity in the heart of the Araucanía Region!
We are pleased to present a residential lot for sale located in the charming commune of Curarrehue, specifically in the Panqui area. This impressive property spans a vast area of 1,490,000 m², offering a wide range of possibilities to build the home of your dreams.

Situated in a privileged natural setting in the province of Cautín, this lot stands out for its proximity to the lake, providing unparalleled access to the tranquility and beauty of the surroundings. Additionally, it faces in all directions—South, North, Northeast, Northwest, East, West, Southeast, and Southwest—ensuring abundant natural light throughout the day in every corner of this expansive property.

This property is a true blank canvas for designing and building according to your plans or interests, whether for tourism development, conservation, or a private initiative in the heart of nature.

A major added value of this property is its native forest, composed of species characteristic of southern Chile such as coihue, hualle, raulí, and mañío, which contribute natural beauty, biodiversity, and a unique environment. This type of native vegetation creates spectacular landscapes and an ideal environment for those seeking direct contact with nature.

Additionally, the property is located near the renowned Panqui Hot Springs, a popular natural attraction in the area, which adds significant potential for tourism or leisure projects.

Another notable advantage is that it’s ideal for those looking for a place where animals can run and play freely.

Don’t miss this unique investment opportunity in a privileged natural setting in southern Chile, where you can develop your projects surrounded by native forest, tranquility, and incomparable landscapes.
