DESCRIPTION

Rinconada de Pucón is an exclusive green real estate development in the heart of the Araucanía's tourist region. Bordering Villarrica National Park and located just 15 km from three hot springs resorts, it represents a unique investment opportunity with high appreciation potential. The subdivision is situated in the majestic Quetrupillán Valley, a setting characterized by imposing native forests and a majestic rocky outcrop ideal for ecotourism or relaxation.

Water is one of the project's greatest strengths. Owners will have guaranteed access to two hectares of common areas: one at the confluence of the Huililco River and the Ceniciento Stream, and another exclusive area on the banks of the Huampoe Stream. Furthermore, located just 400 meters from the National Park boundary, it offers direct access to world-class trails leading to landmarks such as Laguna Blanca, Laguna Azul, and the Quetrupillán Volcano, with panoramic views of Colmillo del Diablo and the Lanín Volcano.

Connectivity and safety are ensured from Pucón via a smooth route: 25 km to Catripulli, 15 km of paved road toward Rinconada de Huililco, and a final stretch of less than 10 km of well-maintained gravel road. The access road ends at a main gate that ensures controlled and secure entry for residents. A unique setting that combines heritage preservation, recreation, and security.

We invite you to explore this lot, take in the views on-site, and discover the possibilities Rinconada de Pucón offers for your life project.
